Horse Steps on Charlie McCaffer | Padre Set Back for Bumping Red ty's Head, Crushing It, Physicians Say, So He Cannot Recover-Escutcheon Wins Crescent City Feature.

New-Orleans, La., March 24.-Jockey Charlie McCafferty to-day met with an accident in the second race at the Fair unds from which the physicians at the stal, to which he was removed, say it will be impossible for him to recover.

McCafferty had the mount on Court Crier, one of the best backed horses of While running in the middle of well supported. Red Ruler, always a well-bunched field. Court Crier fell over the other horse near at the time, but Hopeiess, coming along in the same path, jumped on McCafferty, he too falling. De Rouen and Faulter, the riders of the other two horses, escaped uninjured, but McCafferty was picked up unconscious. It was later found that his skull had been crushed front and buck, both arms broken and his collar bone dislocated. He was removed to the Charity Hospital, where an operation was performed, and later the doctors said it was almost impossible for him to recover.

McCafferty, but also had some experience with other stables, both East and West. Swedish Lad, the cause of the accident, had to be destroyed.

The feature of the rading was a handleap of six farlongs, and this was won by Escutcheon, an odds-on favorite. There were only four starters and Escutcheon led from end to end. Fair Calypso had a try at keeping pace with him in the earliest sprinting, and then Matader and Impoctor Halpin had a chance, but Escutcheon shook them off with little effort and won in a romp.

Floral King's reappearance in a condition race at seven furionss, after a lettup of some six weeks, was an attractive feature. Two others—Prince Richard and High Wind-started.

Fit and ready, Floral King would have been a short odds-on choice, but there was doubt as to his condition, and the liberal price of even mensy was laid about him. High Wind being heavily backed at 6 to 5. Floral King went into the lead shortly after the start and remained in that position, winning easily from High Wind in the fast time of 1:262-5.

HUZZAH'S VICTORY

Ruler, Favorite, Who Finally Arthur's Horse Received a Tre-Gets Purse - Floral King mendous Finish and Won by Comes Out From Long Rest Half a Length, Though Staggering at the End.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Hot Springs, Ark., March 24-Jim Ar-thur's Huzzah under a powerful finish from Wonderly won the handicap at Oaklawn to-day from Priority by half a length. Huzzah and Priority had a desperate battle down the stretch, and both were staggering at the end.

Huzzah was favorite, but was lightly played. Lubin was backed for a good thing, but ran a dull race throughout. King Ellsworth killed off Clovis at the half-mile pole, but then weakened in turn before the strong challenge of Priority. At the head of the stretch Huzzah drew up, and the rest of the race was a battle royal between the two horses. King Elisworth was third, two lengths away.

Two favorites, very heavily backed, Payne and Olonets, were beaten by extremely bad rides. Payne was 1 to 2 and looked to hold his field safe. Spears, however, got caught in a pocket early in the race, and the other boys kept him however, got caught in a pocket early in the race, and the other boys kept him jammed in, and he lacked the skill to extricate himself. Macey, on Simon Kent, interfered with the favorite repeatedly, and as a result was disqualified when he finished third. I Know, out in front and with clear salling, won all the way, while Payne was second. This race had a very bad look.

Gus Macey, who owns Simon Kent, claimed Payne after the race and got the horse, but ruled Payne off and suspended Jockey Macey for an indefinite period.

The public got another body blow in the last, when Ole nets was beaten. There was a long delay at the post, but the break was perfect and Hamburger went to the front and won all the way. Olonetz got bumped out of it several times, when starting to make his run. He could not make up this lost ground and finished second, two lengths back.

Orchestra won the first by a head, coming from behind, while Doctor McCarty, in the second race, won all the way and had something to spare at the end. Lone Wolf was the best in the fifth race and had little trouble beating a cheap field.

Secretary Hervey Woodruff of the Western Jockey Club is here and in the event Memphis jumps the Western Jockey Club will try to arrange for a continuation of the present racting. This, however, is hardly practicable, as the poolrooms will oven on Menday, no matter what the tracks do, and Oaklawn cannot compete with them.

JACK O'BRIEN WON ON PLAINT OF FOUL

Philadelphia Fighter Was Practically Knocked Out by Young Peter Jackson, but Received Verdict.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Baltimore, Md., March 24.-After being apparently knocked out in the second round to-night by Young Peter Jackson, Philadelphia Jack O'Brien recovered sufsciently to stagger to his feet before the count of ten and to remain upright while his seconds claimed a foul, which was allowed.

The men fought at catch weights and, while Jackson seemed to be in condition, O'Brien was a trifle drawn. He seemed unusually cautious when the bout started and did not show his true form, evidently holding himself in. He assumed the aggressive at the outset, but afterward gave to Jackson a wide berth, contenting himself with an occasional jab. Jackson pursued him with persistency and kept coming to O'Brien all the time. The first round was all O'Brien's and he had a round was all O'Brien's and he had a good lead in the second, when, after one minute and twenty seconds of fighting, the pair came to a citrch.

Referce James O'Hara jumped between the men to separate them and, in doing so, held on to O'Brien's arm while he pushed him away.

Dancing quickly around the referee, Jackson let go a wild swing which landed on O'Brien's check and he fell to the floor like a log, his head hitting the boards with a sound that could be heard in all four corners of the big hall. He lay as though dead on the floor, while the referere started a count. He tolled off the count of two, when the cry of foul went up from all parts of the house, and the official stopped his count.

O'Brien's seconds leaped into the ring to carry their man to his corner. O'Brien, still dazed, wrestled himself free from his seconds and started for the referee, but fell on his face on the floor, and was then carried to his corner, while his manager, H. Walter Schlichter, registered the claim of foul.

Referce O'Hara had by this time recovered from his bewilderment and, admitting that the blow was a foul, awarded the bout to O'Brien. The crowd applauded the action of the referez. The men were immediately remarked and the bout will more than likely occur within two weeks.

He discovered that the peculiar soft in the Dalias park, when it became hardward, made lusspy or pebbly particles, which cut the surface of the bail cover, making it "wingy." The atmospheric effect was to impede the progress and shorten the flight of the bail.

McAleer said there would be no more ball-throwing practice, much as the men might need it; and, instead of remaining in Dalias to practice on Monday next, the team will depart for Pine Burg on the morning of that day instead of at night. To-morrow's work was limited to hitting out and catching the bail.

Stone will probably play no more on the Southern trip. His lame leg bothers him considerably and Manager McAleer does not think it wise to take unnecessary chances. Jabez White, Fresh From Across the Seas, Thinks He Will Have a Good Chance With America's Light-Weight Champion.

"MATCH WITH BRITT MADE."

"I'm feeling fine this morning, although tired a little from the long rides," said White as he jumped from the train.

"Well, I think the match with Mr. Britt is made. I expect to meet him the middle of next month. The weight, I think, as Mr. Mitchell made it, is at the lightweight limit—123 pounds. I think I will not have much trouble in making it.
